QuickBooks Online: Bookkeeping for Business

Using Excel for your bookkeeping?

Or already using QuickBooks but want to take your bookkeeping to the cloud?

This 1-hour session will introduce you to the world of QuickBooks Online.

Join us to determine if you want future workshops on this easy way to manage your books, saving you (and your accountant) time, money, and frustration!

June 19th from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. You participate from home!

Many communities will also be hosting from libraries, or come to Island Institute in Rockland. This workshop will be held virtually from Machias.

Registration deadline May 31st

Register by contacting Sharon at Axiom: 255-4917 or classes@connectwithaxiom.com

For more information, contact Stephenie at the Island Institute: 745-3371. Participation virtually will occur using Zoom: If you would like to participate from home, please contact your local librarian or Stephenie if you need assistance setting up your computer.

The Island Institute is proud to contract Axiom Education and Training Center to deliver these programs. Axiom is a nationally recognized leader in providing interactive learning solutions for businesses of all kinds. This event is sponsored by the Island Institute with generous funding from the John T. Gorman Foundation.
