

We want to hear from you!!

The Island Institute has begun a strategic planning process that will define the organization's priorities over the next three years.

What programs and/or resources have worked well (or not) in the past?

How well are our current programs and/or resources meeting community needs?

Where should we focus our programs and/or resources in the next three years?

Please join us for an open public forum.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 21, 2009
7 pm – 9 pm

WHERE: Chebeague Community Hall

Questions? Please contact: Rob Snyder, vice-president of programs, rsnyder@islandinstitute.org or Shey Conover, senior programs director, sconover@islandinstitute.org
